TESTIMONIALS

We are proud to share a handful of recent testimonials from our happy customers. InLoco Golf Events Ltd is dedicated to exceptional customer care, and will always go above and beyond to make sure you are satisfied with our service...

Despite having used good quality booking agents in the past, prior to meeting David and the team, my preference for booking accommodation and events was very much DIY as I felt that it was easier to negotiate directly with potential venues.

However, David and his team provide such an excellent service that you know that they are working for you, ensuring that you get the right venue and the best possible deal.

But their service is much more than that. In my experience of using booking agents, once the contract is signed the agent will step aside and contact is then directly with the venue. However, InLoco Events go beyond expectations in that they continue to be involved providing as much or as little assistance as you need to ensure that the contract runs smoothly.

Their contacts are far reaching, as a result our company has benefitted from the positive relationships he has within the industry, in the form of securing favourable rates and quality service.

I therefore have no hesitation in recommending David and InLoco Events and the personal service they provide.

MRS D FARAM
PA to MD Construction company

InLoco Events Ltd has acted for the Submariners Association to recommend, arrange viewing and liaise with the contractual side for more than 10 years.

David has on two occasions saved the Association an appreciable amount of money over mistakes made by the association organiser.

On a personal note I have found David extremely helpful when negotiating our contracts, The Submariners Association have very exacting demands and traditions that need addressing, yet we have never been disappointed by InLoco Events Ltd achieving those demands.

I have no hesitation in recommending InLoco Events Ltd as the perfect choice to arrange your event and take away not only the worry of quality venues but most importantly the legal minefield of contracts.

MR D BARLOW ASSOCIATION

Our Association has worked with InLoco Events Ltd for some 12 years. Nothing seems to trouble them and they always manage to find the perfect venue in our desired location. InLoco Events have become an integral part of our association and we could not wish for a more professional person to look after our needs.
